Anne Burns

She has had the opportunity to watch the company grow and establish a strong presence in the community. Anne has enjoyed helping with fundraisers for the company including the annual Nutcracker Tea and the Taste of Chocolate. A lifelong love of classical ballet has led Anne to being involved continually with ballet. The Minnesota Dance Theater was the first exposure she had to ballet classes; she then danced with the Branitski Ballet Company for several years. Anne also had the opportunity to choreograph high school musical productions; she found it great fun to teach young people who had never danced to learn to waltz in "Oklahoma" or skip down the "yellow brickroad". In the 1990's Anne and her three children continued their training with Continental Ballet. Her two daughters performed with the company for many Nutcracker seasons. Not only is Anne interested in dance but also in other art forms. She is a member of the Edina Art Center and has been enrolled in pottery classes for many years. The challenge of always learning and creating is a wonderful thing for the mind and body. Anne currently is employed at West Health in the imaging department.
